About

Want to have the experience of working in the world's biggest hub of innovation? Our San Francisco office is opening its doors to international entrepreneurs for 3 months this summer. We're offering 10 entrepreneurs the chance to integrate into the tech community of Silicon Valley using our network of investors and top entrepreneurs.

Our office

Our offices are located at Pier 38, where a community of more than 100 entrepreneurs and investors has taken over. With the ambience of a galleon ship, Pier 38 is located in the heart of San Francisco. Our neighbors include Socialmedia.com, Dogpatch Labs, 99Designs, CoTweet, Lab Zero and True Ventures.

Who should apply?

The Open Office program is a flexible opportunity for professionals of all career stages, backgrounds and nationalities to experience living and working in San Francisco for the first time. You can come on a tourist visa and there is no need to incorporate locally.

How much does it cost?

The price of one workstation, for one person, is $500 per month. This price includes a desk, chair, internet access and other vital office services (e.g. printing, meeting rooms). Also included are all events and mixers held at the incubator. Accommodation, flight, meals, personal expenses and attendance to paid events are not included in the cost.
